Promote Your Michigan Business
A nifty online marketing site

If you own a small business, then like me, you're probably always looking for ways to expand your client base. I've recently discovered a site on the internet that helps with marketing any Michigan-based company.

Michigan Mall offers a variety of listing types for a range of different prices. For example, a listing which includes a link to your website is $99 per year.

Potential clients can search the site for the type of company they're looking to do business with, from electricians to computer geeks like myself. Check out their site and let me know if it helps you. Try doing a search on "Tepato" to find my listing.
